

PRESS RELEASE

ACSM AGAM, ASPEM, AEVV, LARIO RETI HOLDING and A2A sign a memorandum of understanding to study a business and corporate partnership route

Milan, 1 April 2017. Notice is hereby given that today ACSM-AGAM, ASPEM, AEVV, Lario Reti Holding, as the controlling party of Lario Reti Gas and Acel Service, and A2A, as the parent company of ASPEM as well as holder of a stake in ACSM-AGAM worth 23.9% of the share capital and a stake in AEVV worth around 9.4% of the share capital, have signed a non-binding memorandum of understanding in order to start examining a possible route towards a business and corporate partnership with the goal of enhancing the expertise, the close relationships with the territories served and the history of the respective companies.

At the end of this process (which will last around four months), the parties may agree, where the necessary conditions are in place, that they are interested in continuing this path, subjecting any merger plan to the examination and approval of the respective shareholders.
